

EVERYBODY KNOWS

(Slizzy Bob) Edition Taotsin

You just had a broken heart for one more time
The day you walked into that room
There she stood smiling her best smile
Chasing away eternal gloom

Can't you see what everybody knows
She came along
You fell in love
And now you keep it

Can't you see what everybody knows
Just look at you
It is a true
And open secret

That everybody knows
Everybody knows

Don't you think that's just the way it goes
You're always stumbling into something
Life's an endless and always open road
And you only got to take it
